THE FOTUNE TELLER

Scenery, costumes and appointments are lavish, and show the expenditure of a large amount of money in the production of "The Fortune Teller," which Milton and Sargent Aborn will present in this city on Saturday, Nov. 11. "The Fortune Teller" is by Victor Herbert and Harry B. Smith, and is quite the best piece of work these well known collaborators have turned out. The organization is one of the largest musical shows of the season, including many well-known comedians, singers and dancers. The cast is headed by the captivating little prima donna, Grace Orr Myers, in the title role, and she is seconded by a carefully selected support. The chorus is made up of the prettiest of girls, and girls who are highly accomplished in music and terpsichore.

Thomas Hawker, of Shinnston, was here Thursday enroute home from a visit to Senator S. B. Elkins at the latter's home at Elkins.

Theodore Reichert, the barber, has placed in front of his shop in the Siers building a new barber pole.
The shop is located on the second floor, and is so comfortable that once you go up you don't want to come down. Everything from the pole on the street to a cake of soap is brand splinter new, and nothing but the best in the tonsorial line is offered.

Mrs. Err Waldeck, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
J. T. Darnier, of Dayton, O., for the past month was met in Clarksburg by her husband on her return, where they will visit Mr. Waldeck's sister, Mrs. C. Butcher, for a few days before returning to their home at Weston.

Capt. John Tonkin, of Oil City, Pa., manager of the Clarksburg Heat & Light Company, was in the city yesterday on business.
"Show up" at the Traders barber shop and get one of those massage treatments done with the Vibrassage machine. The acme of perfection; just like out reputation. It stands.
The Best. 9nov5t.

Roland Robinson went to Wheeling yesterday to transact some business for the opera house.

You don't need to go home for supper. Get a hot chocolate at Sturm & Wilson's. nov5t.

Splendid results obtained at the ment in the state. Electric massage; compressed air. We try to please. Who's your barber? 9nov5t

Mrs. H. M. Hudson, and Miss Mary Hudson, mother and sister of Dr. W. M. Hudson, are here from Waynesburg, Pa., and will visit him and his wife several days.

Service is what we give you. The Traders barber shop stands on its reputation—the best. Electric massage and compressed air. Find out. 9nov5t

Delicious hot chocolate at the 20th Century fountain. Sturm & Wilson. nov5t.

J. J. Gusman, son of J. B. Gus-man, has returned home from Jane Lew, where he had been at the bed side of his father who is seriously ill of Bright's disease. Mr. Gus-man is improving some but is still in a dangerous condition.

"Best by test." The Traders barber shop, modern and up-to-date equipment. Electric massage; compressed air. Everything neat and clean. Our service the best. 9nov5t

After the theatre your friend would like a hot chocolate. Sturm
